

Monitor Singapore-China Relations

Project Title	Monitor Singapore-China Relations
Project Summary	Monitor Singapore-China political and economic activity, including cooperation on the Belt and Road Initiative.
Country	Singapore
Country/Region of Focus	Singapore

Project Description

Singapore and Beijing have affirmed their close relationship and bilateral ties, deepening their cooperation in numerous areas, including economy, culture and education, as well as the Belt and Road Initiative (BRI). Singapore has positioned itself as a strong supporter for China's constructive engagement and peaceful development in the region. This Virtual Intern position will be responsible for monitoring and reporting on Singapore-China political and economic engagements, including the progress of the recently signed Memorandum of Understanding to promote greater collaboration on BRI in third-country markets. Countries and sectors of focus will vary, but Embassy Singapore's Economic and Political Section will have the opportunity to help identify and pursue a project of mutual interest over the course of the internship. Relevant classroom and/or job (e.g., internship, employment) experience includes national security, international economics, political science, legal, Chinese, Asia studies; overseas experience. Strong analytical, written, and communications skills required; a self-motivator with the ability to manage multiple work streams and deadlines.

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)
Analytical writing
Economic analysis
Political Analysis
Research
Writing

Additional Information

Chinese would be welcome although not required

Language Requirements

Language	Speaking Proficiency	Reading Proficiency	Importance
Chinese-Mandarin	Full professional proficiency	Full professional proficiency	Nice to Have